WHY HOME STUDY & DISTANT ATTUNEMENTS/INITIATIONS

In this issue I'm called to respond to questions regarding Home Study classes as well as distance attunements and/or initiations.

There are many reasons why I'm concentrating more on Home Study than on Live classes. Among them are:

- Home Study has no artificial time constraints such as within a Live Class. When I offer Live Classes I have to set a time and date for the class and there is a need to present all information within the time limit of the class. With the Home Study option you study and receive attunements/initiations when it is convenient for you.
- Home Study offers students much more personalized interaction. My live classes are small sized groups due to my wish to work with students on a personalized basis; however due to the time constraints of live classes I cannot offer extensive one on one interaction with each student and often many students are not comfortable in sharing questions and/or feedback in a group setting. Home Study offers exceptional personal interaction so that all questions and concerns are addressed on an individual basis.

- Cost of presenting Live Classes is quite high due to space rental. Additionally, for those students from out of the area, there is travel, food and lodging expense. Student investment for Home Study classes is only tuition and Home Study affords me the opportunity to offer programs and classes for a reduced price.
- My HOME STUDY PROGRAM offers the ultimate in Home Study. All manuals and other handouts and/or kits (depending upon the class) are delivered to your door. Home Study allows you to study at YOUR convenience and schedule attunements/initiations when convenient for you. All Home Study classes offer certification and unlimited lifetime email support.

DISTANCE ATTUNEMENTS

I'm often asked how and/or why distance attunements work. The answer to this question is quite simple.

All attunements and initiations encompass ALL levels of the Energy Body. Any well studied Master level teacher ALWAYS works at the level of the Etheric and/or Astral—depending upon their skill and the modality - EVEN when attunements take place in the physical presence of the recipient.

Distance attunements are many times much more powerful than those given in person or in classes because the recipient is in their own personal sacred space rather than in the space created by someone else AND because the extremely personal nature of distance attunements allows the recipient the luxury of not being distracted while waiting for their turn during a live class.

WEBSITE UPDATE

The current phase of the website update—revision of all current pages and inclusion of all offerings - continues and is nearing completion.

This is a giant project and I've been working 12 to 14 hour days and doing much of it throughout nights.

I appreciate ALL the feedback I have gotten regarding the site.

I am particularly gratified that many individuals from all over the WORLD are viewing the site and purchasing Home Study products. The translation utility on the site is done by machine so it is very often not a literal and/or "correct" translation; however non-native English speakers throughout the globe have responded very favorably and indicate that they are not terribly concerned about translation accuracy and are very glad that someone in the US is making the effort.

BIG THANKS go to Veronica Bath for all her invaluable assistance. I could not possibly do this update without her incredible help.

We are ALL Spirit GREATNESS! This includes YOU! Please don't forget this FACT!

ASTROLOGICAL HAPPENINGS

The Full Moon in Libra/Aries which occurred on April 13 helps us to find the balance between individual freedom and our social responsibility.

Things are changing, opening and beginning anew signaled by Pluto in Sagittarius opposing Mars in Gemini. Together they form a mutable T-square with Mercury in Pisces.

Mars, Neptune in Aquarius and the Libra Moon form a grand trine in Air signs which signals dialogue of an intriguing nature leading to fresh perspectives. ALL full moons bring illumination to what is being held in our subconscious. The Moon rules our emotions as well as the tides. The full moon in Libra signals the perfect time for creative activities, intuitive development and conscious dreaming.

Hours after the Full Moon, Mars entered Cancer—the emotional waters. The protective mother energy of Cancer can smother the influence of the very assertive Mars influence. This is a time to tame the inner warrior and balance the feminine and masculine energies within. During this transit finding appropriate outlets for our energy is essential.

The Sun moves into Taurus on April 19. This spring transit reminds us to give thanks for our lives and the material blessings that bring us comfort and a sense of security. It is no coincidence that we will celebrate EARTH DAY on April 22 and we must also give thanks to Mother Earth.

Gift her with a tree, plant flowers, help her to renew in whatever way you can.

SPOTLIGHT ON ASTROLOGICAL REPORTS

SPIRITUAL PATH REPORT

We develop according to our own character IN SPITE of everything. The voice within us will not be denied. It continues to drive us, inspiring us to change and grow. It cannot be eradicated and it never gives up.” (from the introduction to Your Spiritual Path Report)

Our spiritual character and needs are well defined from the instant of our births. Yet from that moment on forces around us begin to exert sometimes overwhelming influence on the direction of our spiritual development. Though well intended, these forces may move us along a path that is contrary to our own best interests.

The conflict between your inner spiritual being and the information you are being given may cause a dissonance that vibrates through every aspect of your life, just as the harmony of true spiritual development can be seen in your every action. Learning to identify and acknowledge the characteristics that define your innermost self is the first step in achieving the harmony and spiritual fulfillment you seek.

This report does not attempt to define your spiritual goals, or offer philosophical opinions about what they should be.

Instead, Your Spiritual Path Report gives you a look “inside.” It provides an unbiased perspective on the characteristics that define who you are on a spiritual level. More importantly it gives you a clear understanding of how you can best nurture and develop those characteristics that enhance your progress towards spiritual maturity.

Regardless of whether we acknowledge or deny spirituality in our lives - it is present. To recognize our own personal expressions of this force can bring a sense of immeasurable confidence and inner peace. This is an important report for ALL who recognize that we are first and foremost Spiritual Beings.

Rev. Wendi’s SPIRITUAL PATH REPORTS are professionally done and include an extensive narrative—/interpretation of particular influences of planets, signs in houses, etc. and changes, challenges & opportunities which are specific to you. These reports are not only exciting, but they offer you the opportunity to better integrate, from an Astrological perspective, your Spiritual Being and Spirituality into your LIFE.

They are professionally presented to you in PDF format via email within 72 hours of your purchase.

Spiritual Path Reports are $20—see
