VICTIM CONSCIOUSNESS OR SELF-EMPOWERMENT?

In this issue I'm called to respond to an issue that is almost constantly appearing in my discussions with client's and students and, by the way, one with which I am intimately familiar since I fully and totally embraced the consciousness of being a victim for many, many years.

This issue is of such great concern to me that I am devoting more than one page—speaking to/at it.

The bottom line with this issue is that you are either in Victim Consciousness- or - you are not. There is absolutely no in-between on this issue.

Embracing the Victim archetype means that everything happens "to you" and that nothing is ever your fault as everything is always based upon something that happened to you to "cause" you to function as you do.

Rather than go on and on about this issue I'm going to use myself as an example.

In my case, I was severely victimized from early childhood through my early adult years. I experienced sexual abuse as early as 3 years of age (the first of my memories and I absolutely know that it wasn't the first time because I was entirely too comfortable with what was happening) through my young adult years by members of my family.

Additionally, I was severely physically abused—being beaten on a regular basis and much of my middle and high school years were spent covering the evidence—when I could do so - and feeling extreme shame.

A note here—There is absolutely NO need to feel "sorry" for me (I did way too much of that myself) because if these things hadn't happened I wouldn't have had the need to learn and explore and therefore wouldn't have searched for the opportunities which have enabled me to be the person I am today! More about this in a bit.

Now, what this really means is that I WAS victimized but being victimized does not mean that you will have a victim consciousness UNLESS you CHOOSE to embrace that particular leg trap.

Yes, I do mean choose!!!! In my case, I can pinpoint the exact moment in time when I made that choice—the details do not matter in this context; however I absolutely did make a choice to become a VICTIM.

I spent many years of my life absolutely believing that I was how I was because of what had happened to me. A portrait for giving power away to others.

"Things" just happened to me and oh, poor me, how and why was this ALWAYS happening. Couldn't anyone see that I was being so taken advantage of and that others (particularly men) were the cause.

GET REAL here Wendi was the answer. Grow up and get over it!!!!!!

"Things" happened to me because I called them too me with my mind-set which was all about "let's all feel sorry for Wendi—poor baby sure has had a rough life".

I constantly gave all my power away because I ALLOWED things from the past to rule my every day life.

Nobody can EVER take advantage of you unless you allow them to do so.

Others do what they do and it is YOUR reaction to what they do that is the problem.

Now, this doesn't mean that what they did was ok—as in my case there was nothing “OK” about any of it.

However; it simply means that you can and do CHOOSE to either take what they do and say as the gospel truth and recognize them as the absolute authority on YOU—OR— You can CHOOSE to realize that others feelings and what they say about you and their actions have no power over you UNLESS you allow them to have power.

Embracing and living in Victim Consciousness is really a very safe place to be because you never, ever have to take any personal responsibility whatsoever for your actions.

Safe, does not however move you forward into self-empowerment and realization of yourself as an aspect of the Divine Source—a Spiritual Being who is having a Human Experience.

In my case—as in the case with so many men and women and their relationships, men were always “taking advantage of me and it just wasn’t fair”.

In truth this was a direct reflection of the victim consciousness which I had embraced and the fact that the problem was not the men and what they did, but the choice that I had made about them in the first place. They were who they were and they had always been that. I just refused to see it until it became so apparent that I could no longer ignore it. My choices in men were abysmal and I got just what I had called to me every single time based on what I felt—down deep inside—I was worth or not worth.

Nobody did that to me—I choose to base my worth on what had happened to me rather than on who I really was.

Additionally, it enabled me to just reinforce my attachment to the victim archetype since again it was “oh poor me” and that victim consciousness ball of confusion just grew more and more.

I absolutely believe that we CHOOSE everything that happens in our life and that unless and until you embrace self-responsibility you will remain attached to the victim archetype and will never truly grow and transform.

I constantly talk with people who are entangled in situations of their own making and who refuse to make another choice and move on with their lives.

I hear things like:

- “I know that this is a bad situation; but, he/she has so much potential”. GET REAL—unrealized potential is just that—unrealized. Additionally your perception of someone else’s potential isn’t worth the breath it takes to say it. Until one realizes and acts on their own potential—whatever THEY choose for it to be—that potential is unrealized.
- “I’m staying for the kids because I am afraid to go out on my own”. OK, then stay but quit complaining since it is your choice to stay and you are also choosing to succumb to FEAR—which is “FALSE EVIDENCE APPEARING REAL”. All that your kids are learning is that victimhood is OK—Is that what you want for your children?

- “If only my daddy/ mommy had loved me more everything would be ok”. GET OVER IT! They loved you to the best of their ability/inability and that is that. I for one am VERY thankful that my parents loved me the way they did/did not because I would have never stepped out of the box without their impetus.
- “They did such a bad thing to me and I just can’t get over it”. Another choice you are making—go ahead—continue to give your power away to “them”. A nice and safe place where you never have to claim any responsibility

All of the above are SHINING examples of victim consciousness in action.

I have no right at all to tell you what to do; however, I will say that if any of this “rings a bell” with you then perhaps it is time to take a look at what you are creating in your life and at the choices you have made to not be self-empowered.

YOU HAVE THE POWER TO CHANGE ANYTHING.

It may not be easy and you may have to take a really hard look at yourself; however, it is possible for each and every one of us.

MAKE THE CHOICE NOW TO BE WHO YOU ARE BASED ON WHAT IS WITHIN YOU—not on what others say or do or have done.

I work with many people to assist them in releasing victim consciousness and many other issues—see the Monthly Specials for discounted offerings.

Have you ever heard this?
 “You made your bed now you have to lie in it”.
 How about this instead —
 “if you don’t like the bed you are in—the one you have made for yourself— then make a new bed and keep on making new beds until you find one that works for you”!

REV. WENDI ON THE RADIO

On July 10, 2006 at 12pm (noon) U.S. Pacific Daylight time I will begin an hourly radio program. This program will air "live" each week on Mondays at the same time and all shows will be archived for your listening pleasure with pod-cast offerings too.

This program will air on an extremely well established Spiritually Growth oriented Internet Radio Network and in the future on traditional radio stations.

The Network has well over 100,000 listeners all over the world.

My program—as yet untitled—will consist of interviews at least once a month with individuals who I feel offer only the highest quality training, viewpoints and/or products, a selected topic segment each week which will highlight issues with which we are all faced and offering suggestions for release of same, on-air questions and answers, opportunities for channeling sessions, astrology readings, and much, much more.

If you have a business and would like to have WORLD-WIDE exposure for an extremely reasonable price I am offering 30 second commercials for $20 and 60 second spots for $40 when you purchase a block of 4 slots.

Your commercial will be professionally produced and will air once a week during my show as well as being available indefinitely in the archives and pod-casts.

If you are interested in advertising on the show, you have suggestions for shows or you know someone you would like to have interviewed as a guest on my show, please contact me at the following email address.

radio@spiritsofnativelight.org

There will be much more in the next Native Spirit News regarding my show including a schedule of topics and guests.

UPCOMING OFFERINGS

We are presently working very hard to prepare all classes which I offer with the Home Study option. Among the training and certifications which we are working on are:

- Human Anatomy for Energy Body Workers
- Anatomy of Energy
- Energetic Boundaries

- Medical Intuition
- Color Therapy
- The Aura and Beyond
- Chakra System
- Ascended Master Empowerments
- Empowerment of the Saints
- Crystal & Gemstone

Essences

- Advanced DNA Activations
- Indian Head Massage
- & many more

Stay tuned as by this fall I'll have everything in place to begin to offer degrees and will have Spirit Journey Academy accredited through several national organizations.

WEBSITE UPDATE

The website is still a work in progress.

I am adding more courses each week and have yet to get all the offerings up and available for you.

I am; however, working long hours to get this done and will continue to do so until everything is up and running.

I thank those of you who have written to me regarding the website. Your kind words have made me feel that the work is more than worth the time.

Please come back regularly to the site to see the new offering which are logged on the Change Log page—click here

Over the next few months I will be adding many classes, sessions and products and a huge set of information pages regarding all things Spiritual/Holistic.

Please feel free to contact me with any concerns you have about the website and please, if you find broken links, spelling mistakes or any others issues bring them to my attention.

We are ALL

ASTROLOGICAL HAPPENINGS

On May 19th Mercury enters Gemini until June 3— This is a very welcoming time since our minds seem to work with greater efficiency and clarity and communications are lively and interesting. Things to avoid—superficial thinking, gossip and excessive talking.

On May 21st—the brightest star in the Pleiades, Alycone will be conjunct the Earth's Central Sun. Alycone can be sighted on the horizon just before the Sun rises. You may very well feel a connection to the Pleiades and to the Central Sun and wish to honor its energy in some way. The Central Sun holds the codes of The Living Library of Light and when we have unified enough we will awaken the entirety of the Creator God/Goddess we are and work consciously from this level as we co-create Heaven on Earth.

May 22nd, Neptune stations retrograde in Aquarius until October 28—Whenever one of the outer planets (Neptune, Uranus or Pluto) stations there are subtle shifts of energy which will impact us for quite some time. Our life will turn corners and ask us to notice and follow. This particular station has an extreme ethereal quality to it. You may feel ungrounded, confused and spacey. During the days around this stationing, it is best if you don't try to accomplish tasks requiring concentration or strong focus. This is the time to give yourself extra time to daydream, meditate and to just feel the mystical energy present at this time. This can be a very Spiritual time and it is important to remember that dreams and symbols are all ways with which you can connect to your Higher Self and your Soul.

May 26th & 27th a New Moon in Gemini (date depends upon where you are in the world). The New Moon is always the time to go within, to the inner planes and parts of us that are hidden. It is also the seed of the new beginning and the time when the Sun and the Moon are One.

This is an active time mentally and we will feel filled with ideas and want to talk about them and share them with others. Stay open to what is happening around you now because information that will assist you in some area of your life may very well present itself to you. This is the time for "planting" seeds for the next phase of a project.

In Gemini we also have the opportunity to unify the polarities (twins) within us. This is the time when the polarities within are given a chance to merge—a time when you are able to connect more deeply to inner communication with the true essence of your Spiritual/Divine self.

May 29—Venus enters Taurus until June 23. Venus is very much at home in Taurus since it rules this sign. This is a time during which our attention will be brought to the themes of beauty, art, nature and sensuality. Beware of being possessive and jealous, of seeking pleasure in non-healthy ways or of overspending and over-indulging.

On May 31st and June 1st there is an opening of a dimensional doorway in Antarctica. On January 19, 2004, this doorway initially opened on the equator. It is an equalizer of the poles, so that they do not move too radically, while solar flares activate the consciousness. This doorway has been open since the time of Ancient Lemuria (MU); however it was dormant for many years and it is now being reactivated. If you feel that you resonate with/to it's energy or "remember" then you can travel in your Body of Light into the inner planes of the Antarctic to reconnect, anchor, allow, give and receive in Divine Will. This doorway will be in operation from this time forward.

June 11—Full Moon in Sagittarius - This is the third powerful Full Moon in the year and is the Full Moon of Goodwill for all humanity.

A Full Moon is a time of completion and celebration and the Full Moon in Sagittarius is a time of focusing on the spiritual aspects and higher learning and wisdom. Coupled with it being the Goodwill Full Moon we can focus on seeing/knowing all humanity in a state of peace, divinity and wisdom within themselves and all beings.

The Sagittarius/Gemini polarity (New Moon to Full Moon) is a somewhat "wild" energy so this is a good time to be with others and have fun.

Something we often forget is that to be Spiritual does not mean to be serious, but rather to express our joy. The energies of this full moon can enhance this expression, so rather than getting caught up in what's wrong and thinking it needs to be fixed - which is an illusion, as everything is already whole and Divine in every way - work to see the joy and love in all beings and start to play more.

SPOTLIGHT ON ASTROLOGICAL REPORTS

LIFE PROGRESSIONS REPORT

The physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual changes we experience throughout the course of our lives can be predicted and plotted by carefully observing the progression of our natal chart through time.

Accurately calculating these progressions by hand is a complex task that presents a significant challenge to even the most experienced and mathematically gifted astrologers.

I have recently been gifted with a superb calculation program which enables the most accurate of natal chart progressions. Once the calculations are completed, a PERSONAL LIFE PROGRESSION REPORT is interpreted/created just for YOU!

Reading a personal Life Progression report is exciting. It is like opening a window on some future version of yourself - to glimpse who you will be, and what influences will be impacting your daily life.

This insight into your future can help you make the right choices at the right time in order to avoid unnecessary stumbles and pitfalls as you proceed through the maze that life can be.

Personal Life Progression Reports offer direction and guidance that can put you on and help you stay on a successful path towards realizing your full potential.

The next chapter in your life story may be the best yet!

Your Natal or Birth Chart shows your promise and potential—the Life Progression Report presents you with information to assist with the unfolding of your Spiritual self as you grow and progress during your life.

Life Progression Reports are used to better understand the current events in your life as they offer changes, challenges, & opportunities, and the Personal Life Progressions Reports describe these changes.

Your Personality is indicated by the positions of the planets in your Natal/Birth Chart. The Natal Report is an outline of your "Personality Potential". During your life, your personality is being developed, and the imprints of the Natal chart are being modified and/or changed, both by your own choices and by circumstances beyond your control. As the planets progress into different signs and houses, they form new aspects with each other and with the planets and signs of the Natal/Birth chart. These movements and aspects are beyond our control, however, how we handle these new influences, and how we let them affect our personality is within our control. In order to do this, we need to know what these influences are, when they will happen and how long the influence will last. My Personal Life Progressions Reports describe these influences in a professional, clear & thorough manner.
